

NAME: Janee' Harrell

TITLE: Producer

BUSINESS: MHE3 Productions

STUDENT: Kije Mugisha Rwamasirabo

Janee' Harrell is a spunky television producer/ host, author and motivational speaker who thrives on producing authentic, positive programming designed to help people walk through life's journey. Her first television show, Tour of Giving, is currently in its sixth run on American Life Network. Her latest national television project, RAW Women TV, challenges people to take off the mask and share their secret struggles to open the door to freedom and healing.

Prior to pursuing her passion for media and entertainment, Janee' relished in a longstanding career as a motivational speaker, leadership facilitator, and corporate problem-solver, working with companies such as Southwest Airlines and Carlson Restaurants.

When not producing television, Janee' can be found performing stand-up comedy, singing in her church choir, cooking, or enjoying GUAC Talk with family and friends. When you see Janee', ask her what GUAC Talk is.

Janee' is a dynamic woman on an international, multi-media mission. Her vision, to be a conduit for personal, transformational change and global social change, is accomplished one person and project at a time!
