

2011 PEACE THROUGH BUSINESS®

NAME: Kathleen Wilson

STUDENT: Francine Umurungi

Kathleen's love and understanding of the world began early in her life when she traveled to Kenya as a Peace Corp volunteer where she taught Biology and English at the Nzambani Harambee Secondary School. Later she would travel to Kenya again as a college registrar and visiting lecturer.

Kathleen's professional career experience, while vast, has had a focus on teaching and environmental issues ranging from houseparent of the Delaware County Children's Home, to research technician at the University of Tennessee, to research associate and program coordinator for the Foundation for Research on Economics and the Environment, to science and substitute teacher, to environmental enforcement specialist, to biological science laboratory technician.

She has a Bachelor of Science in Biology from Georgian Court College and a Master of Science in Ecology from the University of Tennessee.